PROCMURA SOLIDARITY MESSAGE TO CHRISTIANS, MUSLIMS, AND THE PEOPLE OF NIGERIA ON THE UPCOMING GENERAL ELECTIONS

The Programme for Christian-Muslim Relations in Africa (PROCMURA) stands in prayerful solidarity with all Christians, Muslims and indeed all people of Nigeria at this very significant moment of democratic sustainability of your beloved country. As you go to the polls to exercise your civic duty during the upcoming elections scheduled for 28th March and 11th April 2015, it is our prayer that God leads and guides you through a successful election; that He leads you in your resolve to demonstrate your patriotism and commitment to nation building and national cohesion. We further pray God to continue to lead you all in the way of peace, tolerance and above all, love. Finally it is our sustained prayer that these elections will end well and peaceful so as to enable you to intentionally work for the cause of sustainable peace that creates the right environment for the spiritual and material development of your great nation.

“Keeping Nigeria one is a task that must be done”, is a popular slogan in Nigeria. Be you a Christian, a Muslim or any other and also regardless of your ethnic or cultural affiliation, the task of keeping Nigeria strong and united rest with you and must be given the highest priority. PROCMURA is with you in this cause of keeping Nigeria united and strong. May the peace of God continue to reign supreme in your hearts and your country as you exercise your franchise during the elections.

GOD IS LOVE, GOD IS GREAT

On behalf of the Governing Council
